

I am a nonprofit organization executive, and a member of the American Society of Association Executives. I totally disagree with the ASAE opposition to the proposed unsolicited fax advertisements regulation, and completely support the FCC proposal. Thank you for attempting to prohibit junk faxes, several of which have been over 30 pages in length. Sent at night or on weekends, they can completely deplete the paper supply in our fax machines.